

High surveillance

Wastewater Pumping Station Control Panel

Vigie is a system designed to support the control and management of wastewater pumping stations. This product has been developed to simplify the task of operators and avoid errors while ensuring the management of workstations, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

BASIC FEATURES

- Power supply - 600 - 460 or 240Vac, 3 phases, 60Hz
- 1 to 400Hp power
- Local disconnector
- NEMA 12 type housing in painted steel
- 7-inch colour touchscreen
- CSA and cULus approved

FEATURES

- Supervision and management of overflows
- Engine supervision
- Automatic pump calibration
- Management of alternation and replacement of pumps
- Control by fleet level regulation or analog probe (CONFIGURABLE)
- Management of level switch failure
- Alarm history
- Alarm transmission by text message or email

OPTIONS

- NEMA 4x stainless steel enclosure
- 10-inch touch screen
- Variable Frequency Drive (VFD)

INSTALLATION

The installation of Vigie is done quickly and easily with the help of your local electrician.

Vigie is an affordable solution that allows efficient and cost-effective supervision of your pumping applications while adapting to all types of installations, whether they are new or existing.

